

BEWARE OF SNOW SHOVELING SCAM!

It will be snowing again soon and I wanted to warn you of this latest scam. You should be on the lookout for this pair in case they appear in your area. They showed up offering to shovel snow from my driveway for $20.

Not ten minutes into the job they were at my door complaining about being cold. They said they wanted to come in to my house and get warm for a while.

Well, three hours and several drinks later, they ended up leaving without finishing the driveway. I didn't get anything done around the house because I was afraid to take my eyes off of them. I'm just glad my wife wasn't at home to see me taken in by this 'scam'. I'd never hear the end of it.

I can hardly stand up.

Don't let this happen to you!
