

Blizzard Titan Cronus – All Mountain Skis

For sale is a used (~20 days total) pair of Blizzard Titan Cronus Skis still in excellent shape with many happy years left. For your reference, a new pair of the exact same skis with different graphic/pictures on top, but without bindings, is listed at $550 on eBay right now.

Mine comes with the IQ binding system that I used for less than 10 days (because I am now using Marker Duke system on my other Blizzard Akira). I am also throwing in extra pair of wide-brakes. All for $250!

Characteristics: The Titan Cronus IQ is designed for versatility from powder to off-piste terrain to the groomed slopes. The 88mm waist and the new IQ Sandwich Compound Sidewall Carbon construction delivers unbelievable performance that Freerideers and aggressive Big Mountain skiers are seeking.

Terrain: All mountain 40% on trail / 60% off

Speed: High Speed

Side Cut: 125-88-111 Radius 21m @ 187 cm

Construction: IQ Sandwich Compound Sidewall, Carbon, Woodcore

Binding: IQ 5.14 TC

The Blizzard's IQ integrated binding system is slick - the binding slides into grooves that are molded right into the construction of the skis to provide natural flex. It's made with high tolerance and feels really tight and solid. If you ever decide to buy another pair of Blizzard skis with IQ system (check them out at Ski Chalet in Beaverton), you could use the same bindings.
