Apologies for this issue being so late. We have all been busy both in our personal and business lives, and we work for the club in our spare time, with no reward other than the pleasure of sharing some fun stuff with all of our club members.

With all the new snow on the ground and more coming, we've also been busy skiing. The 6 day trip to North Idaho was fun. See page 2. As for the Mt. Bachelor trip, we'll report on it in the April issue. We need some pictures from that trip. If you have been on the Bachelor trip, please send me your photos.

Check out the news on page 7. The Mountain Shop pajama party/sale is this Friday, Feb. 28. You can get a 30% discount.

If you haven't yet taken the new Mt. Hood Express bus from Sandy to Skibowl, Government Camp, and Timberline, see the details on page 8.

The annual Ski the Glade Trail day is this Saturday, March 1. See page 10.

Finally, come join us for some fun social activities:

a) Our quarterly Pizza Party at Round Table Pizza, Thursday, March 6, and b) Our annual Chocolate Party on Saturday, March 8. See page 3.

See you there!

North Idaho trip

January 27 - February 1, 2014. This 5 nights /5 days ski trip was attended by 34 people. We had a large 56 passenger bus, so there was plenty of room to move around and socialize on the bus, but since some people had lots of luggage and more than one pair of skis, the luggage compartment was completely full.

We skied and stayed at Schweitzer Mt. for 3 days and nights, enjoying the ski-in/ski-out on-mountain village. Then we moved to Kellogg, Idaho, and stayed in the GuestHouse Inn near the base of the Silver Mt. gondola. The next day, we skied at Lookout Pass on the Idaho-Montana border, skiing all 3 sides of the mountain (Idaho, Montana, and the North side).

We had great luck with the snow. The first day at Schweitzer, we had packed powder. Then it started snowing, both day and night. We had 3 powder days in a row. Finally, on the last day, when we skied at Silver Mt., the skies had cleared and we had perfect sunshine.

On the second night at Schweitzer Mt., right after a pizza dinner, we had a music night. Three of our club members had brought their instruments: Richard Horner, Carl Schnoor, and John Davis.

There was entertainment on the bus as well. Several short videos both serious and funny, including a video on each of the three ski areas, a safety message, a cartoon about a frozen logger, a video demonstrating that skis were never "straight", etc. We also showed a longer, full featured film, one of the first ski films ever produced. It was in German with English sub-titles. It is called "White Ecsasy" ("Der Weisse Rausch"). It was filmed in 1931, starring Hannes Schneider (the famous ski instructor) and Leni Reinfenstahl. Interestingly, in later years, Hannes and Leni went in opposite directions. Hannes was imprisoned by the Hitler regime, while Leni went on to produce propaganda films for the Nazis.

Several meals were included on the trip, including a Chinese lunch, a Pizza night, a steak house family restaurant, and finally an American style buffet dinner in Kennewick, WA, on the drive back home.

Foxie and Ken said: "A heart felt THANKS for such a wonderful trip a few weeks ago. Awesome! Ken and I really had a great time."

John Davis shouted from the chairlift: "Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

Skiing North America

Skiing North America with John & Jewel Andrew

Part 5: Skiing Alabama by Emilio Trampuz

In their quest to ski all the downhill ski areas in North America, John and Jewel Andrew have done many long road trips. Here is part 2 of just one of these, skiing their way from the State of Washington to Alabama and back.

To Alabama and Back - part 2 31 ski areas in 30 days

Paul and Carol Morford accompanied us on this trip. The pictures included here were all taken with pointand-shoot cameras using roll film developed at places along the way. We scanned the negatives to produce these digital copies.

Day 7. Ski World, Nashville, Indiana. We stayed in Bloomington, Ind. Jewel and Carol, having exhausted themselves shopping in Galena, decided to sleep in while Paul and I drove 20 miles east to Ski World (350 ft. vertical) Within a few minutes we'd skied every run. We joined the girls for breakfast and got on the road to Paoli Peaks.

Ski World, Indiana Paul Morford on 350 feet of vertical.

Day 7. Paoli Peaks Ski Resort, Paoli, Indiana. We spent the early afternoon skiing Paoli Peaks' 350 ft. of vertical. I was relieved to log two ski areas in a day. We found Paoli Peaks to be as well run as big resorts out west.

Jewel had fun skiing the tunnel at Paoli Peaks. We had to cut short Jewel's fun and get on the road. After driving south through Louisville, Nashville, and almost to Chattanooga, we rented rooms late at night in a cheap motel. Jewel and Carol were not happy. I was happy because we were within striking distance of Alabama skiing.

Day 8. Cloudmont Ski Resort, Mentone, Alabama. After 2,800 miles across North America, Paul's suburban is covered with a continent of winter grime. Our race with the weather is won. Alabama's ski slopes are open. Jewel is still not happy about the cheap Tennesee motel.

Day 8. Cloudmont Ski Resort, Mentone, Alabama. Jewel takes pictures of the three of us skiing Alabama. Not many other prople around. 150' vertical just for us!

John Andrew at the day lodge, Cloudmont, Alabama

After several runs we ate lunch in the upper lodge (not shown), which was quite nice. We met the owners, who run a year around dude ranch. We listened to their tragic ski story. Their son was killed on the slopes while tending the snow guns just before their grand opening in 1970. They opened on schedule in his honor. We left Cloudmont with great respect for a family that has put Alabama on the map as a skiing state.

First Aid Station, Cloudmont, AL

A challenge for all

You too can embark on a similar adventure. Try a modest goal of any 7 ski areas in the Northwest Ski Challenge. Or, how about visiting all 12 ski areas that are part of the Powder Alliance? See: www.powderalliance.com For a more ambitious lifetime goal, try to ski the 161 western ski areas listed at: www.mthigh.org/SkiAreas.htm. Use a modified form of John and Jewel's spreadsheet with 3 added columns, for up to 3 more people. Start entering a "1" for every ski area visited. See: http://www.mthigh.org/ Documents/North-American-Ski-Areas-2014-2-25.xlsx Stay tuned for the next part of the journey, including Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Colorado, Wyoming, and Idaho.

John Andrew: Alabama slopes beckon!

Three Seattleites grab the handle-tow and head for the top of Alabama's 150 feet of vertical.

Carol & Paul Morford skiing Cloudmont, AL

Emilio's comment: I spent the winter of 1985/86 working in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and I took the opportunity to ski Cloudmont, Alabama. I never thought I would meet anyone else who had been there.

I had less snow than shown in these pictures. There were two islands of snow, one above the other, connected with a narrow strip. I took my skis off and used them as a shovel to push some snow and widen the strip. The ski area manager saw me and gave me a free lift ticket for a future visit. Unfortunately, I never used it.

Let's try the Mt. Hood Express bus from Sandy

We've been encouraging people to meet up in Sandy and carpool from there. This year, let's try to use the new Mountain Express bus service from Sandy to Skibowl, Government Camp and/or Timberline for just One way fare is just $2 (or $1.50 if you prepay for 20 tickets). That's less than you'd spend on gas!

Catch the bus at the Forest Service Park & Ride, right on Hwy. 26, at a bus stop half way between Champion Way and 362nd (which is the Fred Meyer traffic light in Sandy). Turn into Champion Way to park at the Mt. Hood National Forest Information Center. The most convenient time for us is:

- 1. Leave Forestry Service Park & Ride at 7:45 am, arrive at Skibowl West at 8:32 am, arrive at Timberline at 9:00 am.
- 2. Depart from Timberline at 2:45 pm or 4:45 pm. arrive in Sandy at 3:58 or 5:58 pm.

See the schedule on the Clackamas County Mountain Express website, www.clackamas.us/socialservices/ documents/MTX%20schedule%2010-2013.pdf

If you miss us there, try to connect with us on the Mountain using 2-way radios on channel 6-19. But, this might not be easy. We often carry 2-way radios on ski trips to new places, but few of us seem to use them on our local mountain.

So, it's best to try to connect in Sandy and start the day together.

Only, which days will this happen? Well, there is no fixed schedule. If we find out there is a group of us going, we'll try to let everyone know via an email blast.

Also, remember that you can communicate directly with other club members using our online Forum. Feel free to announce your intentions to go skiing on a particular day.

SKITHE GLADE

Ski the Glade Trail Day

March 1, 2014 (Saturday) On the first Saturday of March, by special permit from the Mt. Hood National Forest, the Glade Trail is opened and groomed for this living history event. This full-day event is a chance to experience a historical way of skiing on Mt. Hood.

Skiers are shuttled to Timberline Lodge by bus, escorted down the 3.0 mile trail to Government Camp by local guides and the Mt. Hood Ski Patrol. Lunch, Apres ski party and prizes are included in this unique fund-raiser benefitting the Mt. Hood Museum.

This is the only day in the year that the Glade Trail is groomed and patrolled, and the only time that uphill transportation is provided. If the snow is good and you like powder skiing, there are sveral sections where you can ski the ungroomed snow on the side of the trail. And if you are adventurous enough, you can try following the small blue rectangles marking the Blossom Trail, which meanders through the trees more or less paralleling the Glade Trail until they eventually merge and end up in the same place in Government Camp.

The shuttles will pick people up at two locations: At the bottom of the Glade trail, and also at the Mt. Hood Museum. Shuttles will run from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM allowing ticket holders to make several trail runs. The events of the day are recounted at the Après ski wine party, where prizes are awarded. Wearing vintage ski clothing is encouraged. Purchased at the Museum in Government Camp, or call 503-272-3301. Visa is accepted.

The event is possible through the support of Timberline Lodge, Luxury Accommodations, Valians Ski Shop and Mt. Hood Ski Patrol.

Participation is limited to 75 skiers. Tickets are $100.00 per person. Members of Mt. Hood Cultural Center & Museum receive 10% discount. For more info, contact Lloyd Musser at 503-367-3946.

Note that this is also a cross-country and snowshoe trip.
