New High Speed Quad Lift at Meadows

Mt. Hood Meadows added a new chairlift this summer, named the Vista Express, for the beautiful views it will provide. It is over a mile long, has 113 chairs, and will provide 1,121' vertical rise. It will cover some under-used terrain, starting near the current "Red" chair and ending up in the "Badlands", covering a mix of terrain, from beginner to advanced. A lot of the heavy lifting was done by helicopter. Total cost $3 million.

MOUNTAIN HIGH SNOWSPORT CLUB

A profile of our club's president: Gary Stevenson

1. Who: Gary Lynn Stevenson, Born Jan 17, 1953, Chicago, Illinois. Came out west Nov. 3, 1972. Settled in Eugene with the flower children, was in a band; moved to Portland in 1977. Was a DJ for KISN radio for several years in the early 80s.
2. Started skiing at age: 39, on Mt Hood.
3. How did you learn? : I had a one day group lesson. Then Mike Weber took me to the top of elevator and said "point and go".
4. Current skiing ability/style: I get down but it isn't always pretty.
5. How does it feel to be the President: great; it's presidential; I'm proud to be the figure head of such austere organization. How does it compare to the last time? Now it is twice the club, twice the fun. During my first term, I was a new skier and a new club member. I really didn't know anyone or anything about the ski community. 10 years later I at least know a bunch of really great folks in the ski community.
6. How did you become the Prez? Way back when, I was executive VP, which meant I showed up for meetings but didn't do much. Beth Royce railroaded me into the VP position not telling me that the next year I would be expected to be the Pres. I rode my Triumph to a party at her house, little did I know what was laying it wait for me. But it has been a really great experience. I am glad she railroaded me.
7. Describe yourself, in a few words: My wife calls me "anal", but I call me a perfectionist!
8. How would your friends describe you? Obsessed with minutia. My wife calls me "an old fashion gentleman".
9. What do you like to ski best? I live for the 5 seconds in the race gate as the starter counts down to racer ready; and the thrill of crossing the finish line. Favorite ski area? Any nastar course that is open.
10. What is the most enjoyable part of a trip to the mountains? The race course; spending a great day with my friends and family.
11. Other favorite sports: Baseball, golf.
12. Other favorite activities? Spending time with my 4 year old grandson, Caden Taylor. Building things with and for him. Like the WWI peddle bi-plane for the Middle of Millen Drive Independence day parade. The tree house I will be building for him this year. All of the home improvement projects my lovely wife dreams up for me to do!
13. Tell us a story
  - 1) First time I went golfing with the ski club and from 180 yards out I hit the best 7 wood of my life; which firmly struck Beth Royce on the behind as she was lining up a putt.
  - 2) Gerry Ignawtowski teaching me to play craps at Tahoe. I won enough money to give to Patty, so I could go on a house boat trip to Lake Shasta.
  - 3) But most memorable of all was meeting my wonderful wife, Suzanne. I tried to pick her up at a PACRAT race, but she was too busy skiing with Susan Noraker to be bothered with the likes of me. Then 6 months later I met her again at Friday night golf and I was just too charming for her to resist. Chocolate Raspberry cake at Papa Haydn's didn't hurt!

Meet our members!

Gary Stevenson

Members have said abt. Gary

- ❖ Gary was the MC at our wedding reception on Sep 16, 1995 at the Oregon Golf Club (WOW nine years ago!). - Violet & Greg
- ❖ Gary has a great sense of humor. For example: He officiated at my daughter's wedding. After the bride and groom walked out, he invited the grandparents and parents of the groom and bride to walk out. Edie and I had gone only about 20 feet when Gary bellowed to be heard over the music from the string quartet, "And the rest of you people, divide up into teams for dodgeball!" - Steve & Edie
- ❖ Gary is a great person, fair, kind, loves golf, & is a good leader! - Jax
- ❖ We LOVE HIM!! - Patty & Gerry
